V. CHANGES IN TUITION, FEES AND OTHER CHARGES

The University reserves the right to review charges and fees whenever:

1. There is an increase in educational and general expenses and/or mandatory transfers.
2. Budget projections indicate a possible increase in these costs.
3. After careful analysis of any particular situation, the University administration determines that such changes are reasonable and justified.

VI. PAYMENTS

The total cost of tuition fees and other charges is payable in its entirety at the time of registration.

The difference between the total cost of tuition, fees and other charges and the total amount of financial aid a student receives (except for Work Study benefits) is payable at the time of registration.

Payments can be made through Money Orders, Checks (drawn to the Inter American University of Puerto Rico), cash, credit cards (Master Card, VISA, American Express, Discover) and the ATH debit card.

Payments can also be made by MasterCard or VISA, accessing the University WEB page.

VII. DEFERRED PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

The University grants students the privilege of a deferred payment for seventy-five percent (75%) of the total cost of registration per semester, trimester or bimester upon signing a duly notarized promissory note. To be eligible for deferred payment, students must have liquidated any debts from previous academic terms. In no case shall the total amount to be defer exceed the balance of the debt after discounting the financial aid benefits or loans.

The Chief Executive Officer of the academic units may, in exceptional cases, increase the percentage of the deferral if it is understood to be beneficial for the Institution, and after analysis that concludes that there is reasonable certainty that the debt will be paid.

The payment of the deferred total cost of tuition, fees and other charges of a semester becomes due seventy-five (75) days after first day of class. The deferred amount for a semester is due in a maximum of three (3) equal installments.

The award of a deferred payment carries a fee to cover part of the administrative expenses of this service. There will be a charge of five percent (5%) on an installment is not paid by its due date.

It is the responsibility of each student to know when payments are due and make arrangements accordingly.

Students who do not meet their financial commitments by the due date will be suspended, withdrawn from classes, and will not receive a grade in courses in which they have enrolled. They will also lose their rights to receive University services until their debts be removed in accordance with the Federal and Puerto Rican regulations.

THERE IS NO DEFERRED PAYMENT PLAN DURING THE SUMMER SESSIONS, except by the expressed authorization of the Vice President for Management, Finance and Systemic Services. This deferred amount must be pay within thirty (30) days from the last day of classes of the summer session in which the deferment was awarded.

VIII. DEBTS FOR OTHER REASONS

When a student or former student is in debt to the University for any other reason than deferred payments, as explained in the current Catalog, independently of any payment plan granted or any collection procedure that may be or has been initiated, they will lose their rights to receive University services until the debt is paid in full.

Students transferred from another University or College who has debts with any of the federal financial aid programs will not be eligible for financial aid at this University.
